

Everyone Arise and Let it Shine

F

Everyone arise and let it shine,

children of our God your light has come for the Glory of the Lord, and the beauty of his Grace

is rising on you now

Though the darkness covers all the earth

they will see the light, they will hear the sound

Praise him, praise him, praise him

Arise and shine, and celebrate him

Praise him, praise him praise, him

Let the glory rise on you and let it rise...
